

Lejla Čabrić

Lejla Čabrić, born in 1988, studied law at the University of Tuzla, Bosnia and Herzegovina, and at the University of Heidelberg, with a focus on "Private International Law" and accordingly, she has two university degrees in law.

After completing her law studies in Tuzla, she worked for a notary public and a company in Bosnia and Herzegovina and gained litigation experience throughout the Western Balkans.

She completed her legal traineeship at the Higher Regional Court of Nuremberg in the professional field "advocacy". During this time, she gained practical legal experience in a medium-sized law firm in the areas of media law, copyright law and labour law.

Lejla Čabrić has been admitted to the bar since 2022 and is part of the Meisterernst Rechtsanwälte team. The focus of her work is on advising national and international companies on regulatory issues relating to food, feed and cosmetics law as well as competition law issues.

Lejla Čabrić advises in German and English. She is also a native speaker of Bosnian (Serbian/Croatian/Montenegrin).
