

Alexander Lehnert

Alexander Lehnert, Rechtsanwalt (attorney) born 1994, studied law at the Westfälische Wilhelms-University of Münster with a focus on Information, Telecommunications and Media Law. Already during his studies, Mr Lehnert focused on data protection law. He completed his legal traineeship at the Higher Regional Court of Hamm from 2019 to 2022, among others in a law firm specialised on IT law, data protection law and competition law.

Since his admission as a qualified lawyer in 2022, Mr Lehnert supports the pharmaceutical & healthcare team of the law firm Meisterernst Rechtsanwälte in all questions of pharmaceutical, veterinary medicinal products and medicinal product law as well as data protection law. His practice includes, in particular, competition law matters, regulatory issues, questions regarding the advertisement of medicinal products and related data protection issues.

Alexander Lehnert advises in German and English language.
